AccessAbilityfest

Bringing resources & recreation to people with disabilities & their families

Brought to you by:

Texas Public Radio * Valero Energy Foundation * The Gordon Hartman Family Foundation

October is National Disability Awareness Month. Celebrate with 100 partner organizations and businesses at the Institute of Texan Cultures for AccessAbility Fest to bring resources and recreation to people with disabilities and their families.

The festival is FREE and OPEN for the public to attend. Children and adults with disabilities and their families are WELCOME!

What: A festival bringing resources and recreation to people with disabilities and their families.

Where: Institute of Texan Cultures; "Back 40" Grounds Area
801 S. Bowie St., San Antonio, Texas 78205

When: Sunday, October 11, 2009; 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Why: To share information, resources, ideas and support between people with all types of disabilities; to highlight organizations and businesses that provide these services; to advance public attitudes, awareness, respect and consideration for the success of persons with disabilities.

Enjoy ENTERTAINMENT by performing arts groups featuring people with disabilities and a kid-friendly FUN ZONE while gathering resources & information on non-profit organizations and businesses that provide programs and services for children & adults with physical, mental health, sensory & developmental disabilities.

Bring a PICNIC LUNCH to enjoy on the grounds of the Institute of Texan Cultures. No glass containers, please. COMPLIMENTARY water will be provided.
