

“Do You Have a Cool Neighbor?” Presentations

The Alamo Service Connection in collaboration with several key organizations has launched a “Do You Have a Cool Neighbor?” Campaign. The goal of the campaign is to create public awareness about heat-related signs and symptoms along with recommended courses of action.

Featured Speaker Mary K. Dunn, PhD will conduct interactive sessions on heat related signs and symptoms. Dates are listed below.

July 29, 2009 – 10:00 a.m.
Bob Ross Multi-Service Senior Health & Resource Center
2219 Babcock
San Antonio, TX 78229
Contact Person: Pete McKinney
(210) 207-5350

August 6, 2009 – 9:30 a.m.
Elvira Cisneros Senior Community Ctr.
517 SW Military Drive
San Antonio, TX 78221
Contact Person: Audri Torres
(210) 927-9328

July 31, 2009 – 9:00 a.m.
Comanche Park #2
2600 Rigsby
San Antonio, TX 78222
Contact Person: Candy Hill
(210) 333-0414

August 7, 2009 – 10:00 a.m.
George Cisneros Apartments
3003 Weir Avenue
San Antonio, TX 78226
Contact Person: Maria Luna
(210) 389-0167

July 31, 2009 – 11:15 a.m.
Claude W. Black Center
2805 E. Commerce
San Antonio, TX 78203
Contact Person: Ben Dominguez
(210) 226-8561

August 7, 2009 – 2:00 pm
Timberhill Villa
5050 Timberhill
San Antonio, TX 78238
Contact Person: T.A. Strader
(210) 684-3480

For more information about these presentations or to schedule a presentation in your area, contact the Alamo Service Connection at (210) 477-3275.

