Special Needs Trusts 101

A special needs trust is created to ensure that people who are disabled can enjoy the use of money or property which is intended to be held for their benefit. In addition to personal planning reasons for a trust (the person may lack the mental capacity to handle their financial affairs) there are financial advantages to the use of a trust. Trusts may also avoid beneficiaries losing access to essential government benefits. Join us for an overview of special needs trusts and determine if they are appropriate for you.
